CRYO TED is in first place at the break with good reason... he is dominating with 4 LP3 All-Stars!

Some honorable mention guys:

- Yahoo #8 Manny Machado (bal) is an RBI. 3B is the most exciting position in baseball this year with an incredibly strong group of young, outstanding ballplayers.
- #9 Nolan Arenado (col) is Prague (boo!)... and copy-paste my 3B blather here
- #15 NotMike Stanton (mia) is Brawler and is still leading the BIGS in home run despite missing the last 3 weeks due to injury.
- #13 Dallas Keuchel (hou) is a Poap and was selected by His Holiness as his round 19 pick off the scrap heap.

The first place TED sport an impressive 5 game lead over the league. After that, the playoff jumble extends all the way from 2nd place Naperville to 8th place Brawler, just 10 games out of the last playoff position.

In 5th place, Prague presents an existential threat to the league. If a robo-team from a gawd-awful Yahoo O-Rank list wins the league, then we'll fold up our tent and fade forever into shame and anonymity. So be it!

That's it. On to the second half. Huzzah!

peace... yow, bill

PS – Your All-Star break MVP... he's much better than your guys with a crushing line of 60 run, 21 dinger, 70 rbi, 16 sb, and 192 tb. Jiminy!

That's Goldy... Paul Goldschmidt (ari) of THE TED.
