This week in LP3

Team OTW - Go go go. Ronsby Swanson was the top team in week 6.

Two weird stats last week:

- Boston had the best hitting (ave cat rank 3.0) and the worst pitching (13.8)
- The last four Teams OTW (KGG, CRYO, PTBNL, Ronsby) all had an average cat rank of exactly 5.1 (shrug)

It's early. But not too early to recall that just six teams make the playoffs in our sixteen team league

I love love love our old school playoff setup, btw. No play-in teams or participation trophies in LetsPlay3. (huzzah!)

Some early bubble teams: #7 Bay City .550, #8 PTBNL .533, #9 KGG .517.

If you're under .500, you better get hopping. (cough, DG, cough)

Players OTW

- Best bopper - K Tucker (hou) Yahoo #3, Breaking Beard
- Best SP - Seth Lugo (tam) #8, Breaking Beard
- Best RP - R Suarez (sdg) #37, KGG
- Best free agents - Eddie Rosario (was) #1

Buffalo Chatbot update: W Contreras (stl) to IL, K Ruiz (was) to C

Underdog alert - Some good news in May for the local sports team

- The Chicago White Sox are 6-5 in May. They won just 3 games before May, so pretty amazing, sports.yahoo.com/mlb/teams/chi-white-sox/schedule
- It's too bad the Sox lost yesterday, otherwise they would have had a 5 game winning streak
- The Sox are no longer the worst team in MLB: 1) Miami .262, 2) Sox .293, 2) Colorado .300.
- A couple Sox players have cracked Yahoo Top 100 for "Last 14 Days": G Crochet (six) #14, DG and P DeJong (sox) #47 free agent

Week 7 Game of the Week: #4 Killer Maltese @ #11 Buffalo Chatbot

It's the fantasy Yankees versus the cold, godless AI drone. Go humanity!

Chatbot: I'm sorry Brad. I'm afraid I can't do that.

Killer Brad: Do what, you stupid bot! You're going down.

he he...yow, bill
